Proceedings of the State Information Commission, Kerala, in Appeal Petition No.174/2007/SIC

No.1908/SIC-Gen3/2007. Date: 13.07.2007

Dr. Suja Ani TC 3/1611 Kesavadasapuram Pattom P.O., Thiruvananthapuram	Appellant

Vs

Public Information Officer Dental College Thirivananthapuram	Respondent

O R D E R

The appellant Dr. Suja Ani, TC 3/1611 Kesavadasapuram, Pattom P.O., Thiruvananthapuram filed a second appeal to the State Information Commission on 20.03.2007. The circumstances leading to second appeal can be summarized as follows:-

The appellant applied for some information on 31.01.2007 to the Public Information Officer, Dental College, Thiruvananthapuram. She was given a reply on 02.02.2007 by the PIO. Not satisfied with the reply she filed the first appeal on 03.02.2007 to the Principal of Dental College, Appellate Authority. A reply was given to the first appeal on 13.03.2007. The Appellant was not satisfied with that also. Hence the second appeal.

On receiving the second appeal the Commission on 09.05.2007 asked for detailed report from the Appellate Authority. The report was submitted to the Commission on 17.05.2007.

The Commission carefully examined the report as well as the second appeal. In its report the Appellate Authority affirms that the information requested has been provided within the time limit. The Commission observed that whatever information available with the Public Authority has been provided to the appellant well in time and further that the information sought fall clearly in the administrative domain. In these circumstances no further intervention is called for and the appeal is dismissed.

Dated this the 13 day of July, 2007.
