Requester

Vs

Public Information Officer
Superintendent of Police (Railway)
Thiruvananthapuram.

Respondent

ORDER

Today when this case was taken up for hearing Sri. Sanjay Krishnan, the requester in this case was absent. No representation had been received from him. Mr. A.K. Venugopal, DYSP, DCRB (Railway) was present. He was not the designated Information Officer. The case of the requester was that the requester in this case had made a request before the Superintendent of Police, Railway, Thiruvananthapuram for obtaining copies of the statement in which himself, his brother and the Railway Station Master of Neeleswaram had furnished some statements. The report furnished by the Public Information Officer, would show that, there are some altercation between the requester and the Station Master, Neeleswaram on 30.10.2005. This was in connection with a dispute regarding an STD Booth functioning inside the railway premises. A Police case ST-1792/06 was pending before the Honorary Railway Magistrate, Kozhikode. For production of the records before the Magistrate Court the requester had asked for copies of the statement those were recorded by the Police.

Therefore, the Superintendent of Police, railway is hereby directed to furnish the required information within 15 days of the receipt of this order and prefer a detailed affidavit of compliance.

The request under reference was not seen received in the office of the Railway Superintendent on 1.7.2006 as claimed by the requester. So there cannot be any delay, since the same has not been received. However the required information shall be provided as requested.

Dated this the 28th day of November 2007.
